

As a regularly voting citizen of the state of Wisconsin, I am outraged that the banking industry is seeking to weaken Wisconsin's do-not-call law, and is trying to replace it with a weaker FCC regulation. I plan to write my senators about this important issue as well and will be doing all that I can to protect Wisconsin no-call legislation which has resulted in fewer intrusions by corporations and big money interests of my home.